

Hi there,

PPP rules are changing – again. And yet again. Yesterday, June 8, the SBA and Treasury made a new announcement, clarifying the Paycheck Protection Program Flexibility Act (PPPFA), which was signed into law by President Trump on June 5.

It's more good news.

Don't forget to join us for Part 2 of our webinar, Breaking News, Foraging Through Forgiveness: Maximizing Your SBA Grant, TODAY, June 9, from 1:00-2:00 PM EDT.

You'll hear from our veteran compliance expert, Yonina F. Shineweather, CPA, who will continue to explain the breaking news in the new PPPFA. You'll walk away knowing:

- What new option you'll now have for tallying up forgivable costs;
- Which two options all employers have for their headcount lookback period (and which is best for you to choose);
- Which two options you have for counting your headcount (and which you want to choose);
- Whether a reduction exemption is good or bad and how you get it;
- What's different about the way you count employee-owners' or partners' pay;

...and much, much more.

SPECIAL PREVIEW FOR ALL ATTENDEES:

- A one-page chart with the FIVE safe harbors you can use to maximize your grant
- Two helpful PPP infographics

This is a not-to-miss opportunity for you to learn the new twists in maximizing your forgiveness and getting the biggest grant available. You'll need to understand this new law in order to maximize your forgiveness. Register now while spots remain!
